WORLD'S LARGEST FIREARMS SHOW

WANENMACHER'S TULSA ARMS SHOW will open the doors at Expo Square (Tulsa Fairgrounds) to the public on April 7 & 8. From a modest beginning in 1955, the show has grown to almost 6 miles of exhibits. The world's largest gun and knife show will fill the eleven-acre building with more than 4,250 exhibits of very fine antique and modern firearms, knives, swords and accessories, on display and for sale.

General-interest exhibits will include wildlife and western art, bronze work and jewelry. Several collectors' organizations will be present with outstanding exhibits and items to sell. The Browning Collectors and Smith & Wesson Collectors will be featured guests. The Wanenmacher show is international in scope, drawing exhibitors and spectators worldwide.

The public is invited to bring their firearms, swords, and knives for a free appraisal, or to sell or trade. If you are thinking of upgrading, you will find the largest selection and best prices. Most exhibitors will take your gun in trade.

The show will feature celebrity guests. You will have the opportunity to meet Gunsmoke's Buck Taylor, as well as Jim West, star of "Alaska Wild West".

Don't miss the NRA National Firearms Museum's display entitled "Serial Number 1 Guns", which features a Smith and Wesson Schofield serial number 1. This revolver was US military issue during the Indian Wars era, and then purchased as surplus by the Wells Fargo Express Company to arm their messengers. And also the Colt Model 1851 Navy, .40 caliber, serial number 1. This prototype revolver dates from the 1850s.

Admission is free with the purchase of a new NRA (National Rifle Association) membership at the door. Receive a discounted price of only $30, which includes a free cap valued at $16.95, plus free admission. Several thousand spectators took advantage of this offer during the past year.

WANENMACHER'S TULSA ARMS SHOW brings more than nineteen million dollars to Tulsa annually, and more people attend WANENMACHER'S TULSA ARMS SHOW than any other 2-day event at the Tulsa Fairgrounds. The show is open to the public Saturday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Sunday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Advance admission, V.I.P. Passes, will be sold at 2A Shooting Center, MacKool's Firearms, Green Country Arms & Pawn, Sports World, and Gray's Jewelry Gun and Pawn in Tulsa and Broken Arrow. In the Oklahoma City vicinity, passes are available from C & J Sporting Goods in Bethany.
